Lawson's Charge.

"Henry M. Whitney, have you ever bribed a Massachusetts Legislator or any official of the city of Boston? Have you ever caused others to bribe them?"

"I say that you have, and I stand ready at all times to back it up or pay the penalty."
Thomas W. Lawson

Thomas W. Lawson, who has challenged Henry M. Whitney to meet him at Marshfield and make denial of bribery charges.

LAWSON CHALLENGES WHITNEY TO ANSWER CHARGE OF BRIBERY

Reiterates Accusations and Calls Upon Candidate to Come to Marshfield To-day and Reply to Him in Person—Whitney Silent on Second Invitation.

Thomas W. Lawson is now at the Marshfield Fair, awaiting the arrival there of Henry M. Whitney, to whom he has offered the privilege of the platform to publicly answer the gravest charge ever made against a candidate for Governor of Massachusetts.

"Come here and deny, if you dare, the charge I made against you—that you are the Blue Ribbon winner among all bribers!"

This is the defiance which Lawson sent to Whitney again to-day. It is understood that Whitney has no intention of going to Marshfield and replying to Lawson's accusation on the same platform on which it was delivered. He decided to keep away and answer by the statement made public yesterday.

"MASTER CORRUPTIONIST."

But not knowing but that Whitney might change his mind, Lawson is at Marshfield and uttering threats against the man he has denounced in print and speech as one of the master corruptionists of the age.

Whitney could not be found in town to-day. So far, he has been silent to Lawson's renewed attack.

Whitney pleaded a previous engagement as an excuse for his being unable to speak at Marshfield in reply to Lawson's "master" speech and said that his foe could not prove that he was a briber.

"The substance of the Whitney reply was: 'You are a fraudster and a liar.'"

"I'll MAKE HIM HUSTLE."

"I swear," declared Lawson in reply, "that I will make Mr. Whitney hustle for that accusation. He is manipulating the press to make the people of the State believe that he is a victim of the State's political machinery, and I will show him before the campaign ends very much how I will show him."

"I am going to sell out the whole State," he declared, "and I will show him before the campaign ends very much how I will show him."

"Come to the fair and answer my charge of bribery," he said. "I'll be here when you answer me."

Before this Lawson addressed Whitney in this way:

"Henry M. Whitney, have you ever bribed a Massachusetts Legislator or any official of the city of Boston? Have you ever caused others to bribe them?"

"I say that you have, and I stand ready at all times to back it up or pay the penalty."

Publicans were wondering to-day just what Mr. Lawson proposed to do. Whitney was silent.

Mr. Lawson is billed to speak again this evening at the fair.

Whitney, according to the tradition, is to appear on what action Mr. Whitney takes in the State next week's election.

LINE UP FOR BATTLE IN CONVENTION CITY

WHITNEY PEOPLE TO BOOM WORCESTER AT TO-DAY'S COMMITTEE MEETING.

The Whitney and Whitney forces are to-day lined up for their first test of strength before the representatives of the Democrats of Massachusetts.

The Democratic State Committee meets at its headquarters, No. 85 State street, to-day, to decide the time and place of the State convention, to fix the basis of representation, and select a platform and other temporary committee officers.

It is in this preliminary—held last week—recommending the State convention to be held at Worcester, that the Whitney people have secured the support of the State's leading politicians.

Physically Broken Down, Elihu ROOT IN A SANATORIUM

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Aug. 23.—Suffering severe physical breakdown and bed-ridden, Elihu Root, Secretary of State in President Roosevelt's cabinet, is a patient at "Billy" Muldoon's farm, being put through a course of physical culture there.

So serious is Mr. Root's condition that he was taken with great secrecy to the sanatorium, which is conducted by former champion wrestler Muldoon, two miles from this place. Root's devoted wife and family fear he may never recover.

Hundreds of people gathered about the famous health farm today in the hope of getting a glimpse of the Secretary of State, wearing a sweater, trousers and rubber slippers, being a cross-country trot, under the watchful eye and at the strict command of the staff.

To see the adviser of President Roosevelt, reported by passing a "nostril" with Muldoon, after the fashion of dogs and girls in a gruncheon, was a treat to tempt many.

Muldoon, however, believes in privacy as well as health, and he would admit no visitor to his "posse."

His Training Schedule.

It is understood that Root has been under the care of Muldoon since August 15. Following is the regulation schedule of training which he complete every patient to emerge:

Up at sunrise, put on trunks, sweater and dress suit, hot water, wash, shower, patient rubbering himself, dress for staid walk at 7:45, water, shower, rubber slippers, none being permitted with shoes; walk or trot a mile or two, horseback ride, walking up all hills, hot water shower, bath and rubber slippers, shower with full meal.

one cigar, but no cigarettes; everybody in bed at 8 p. m.

Root has been suffering from nervousness and insomnia for some time.

Muldoon to-day said: "Mr. Root has been here for three weeks and looks ten years younger than when he arrived. He will last leave my place until the middle of next month."

SEVEN BLOWN TO ATOMS BY BARGE EXPLOSION

SIX OTHERS HOVER NEAR DEATH AS RESULT OF RIVER TRAGEDY.

By Boston American Lead Wire, agent supplied.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—Seven persons were instantly killed and half a dozen perhaps fatally injured to-day, when a coal barge blowing to the Erie Railroad took up at seventeenth street and Park avenue, Hoboken.

The barge had just blown out of the way from the shipyard at Tilden & Laug & Brownworth street and Park avenue, when the explosion occurred.

The barge was struck to small bits and pieces at the bottom of the canal where the pile between New York and Hoboken.

Two vessels which lay alongside the barge were seriously damaged and held up for half a block were shaken by the great concussion. No one knows how the explosion occurred.

Seven of the men were blown into the air. Those who survived were on the ground. Most of the dead were natives of the State against the interest of the accident were slightly injured by flying debris.

WOMAN, BITTEN, KEEPS HER HOLD ON MAD DOG

Proth flew from its lips and the creature began to snap violently right and left, almost striking the woman's face. Greatest Mystery in All America

DARK SECRET OF THE OIL BARREL

Where Is J. D. Rockefeller's Father?

No One Will Tell Where Aged Head of Richest Family Is Hidden.

The greatest mystery in the world today is the Rockefeller mystery. There is no question as to the fact that the mystery of John D. Rockefeller's father is more robust than almost any other in the world.

The imagination is staggered by the statement that the only millionaire on earth has a father whose hiding place and identity form a secret which the mystery of the "Man With the Iron Mask" is more robust than almost any other in the world.

Alone and Well, But Where? Though treated as one dead by John D. Rockefeller, old William A. Rockefeller is alive—very much so. There is no question on this point. The world has the testimony of these witnesses.

Frank Rockefeller, the youngest son of the mysterious man and brother of the oil millionaire; and Mrs. Harold F. McCormick of Chicago, John D. Rockefeller's favorite daughter.

So far they are the only survivors of the Rockefeller family to talk of the old man in any connection.

Frank Rockefeller says nothing about the manner in which his father is living. He intimates that the old man is not living in seclusion through choice.

Mrs. McCormick is positive in her assertion that her father is not living in seclusion through choice. She says that he is in his native land, in the city of New York, in the city of New York, in the city of New York.

Why has it never been decided that the father of the oil king was a horse thief, a patent medicine dealer, a quack doctor?

Why does the bewitched millionaire of candy law and talk seek to prevent his father being found?

Varies from Earth. Why did this phreatic old founder of the house of Rockefeller give his son his first thousand dollars and then try to win him back by "trading" and then disappear from sight when that son began to make money?

Why do the Rockefellers refuse to talk about the days when this son, this heir, this father was supposed to be a fake owner and a fake father?

Where is this father living? WHERE does he hide himself so that his son can be in communication with him and yet be in the world unknown?

Preaching through his son, the rich Rockefeller talks to the little class and reads from the Scriptures the famous: "Honor thy father and thy mother: that is the first commandment which is the duty of every man."

He denies his own father. He denies him in a place of scorn by secrecy over him.

SHIELD SOCIETY WOMAN FACING THEFT CHARGE

Mystery surrounds the criminal action against Mrs. Jennie Palmer Morrill of No. 55 Berkeley street, a candidate in the famous civic campaign in 1906, who was made by prominent society women to have the booth fund made a question of the city and a woman to the post on physical culture and law defying age.

Mrs. Morrill was yesterday secretly brought before Judge Wolf in the Municipal Criminal Court charged in an attorney's warrant with the larceny of $400 in money from the estate of Larry V. Lawrence, deceased, of the same street and number, on June 1, 1907.

She should not quit and her attorney had the hearing continued until next Wednesday, the defendant being held in bonds of $1,000 for her appearance at that time.

The greatest mystery surrounds the case. Mrs. Morrill was brought into the police court by Inspector Armstrong and ignorance of any such action is professed by her.

Mrs. Morrill, who is well known in Back Bay society circles, was the wife of an Ashmun, N. H. school teacher. Later she was married to a Bostonian, a man of considerable wealth.

LIEUT. CARR CHOKED DEAD BY CHICKEN BONE

VETERAN OF POLICE FORCE EXPIRES AFTER MANY HOURS OF SUFFERING.

The death of Lieutenant George M. Carr of the Hanover street police station occurred today, as the result, the physician thinks, of a chicken bone becoming lodged in his throat Monday evening.

The officer was at his desk in the station eating a chicken sandwich, when a bone became lodged in his throat. Dr. Dunn, the police surgeon, temporarily relieved his suffering.

Lieutenant Carr went to his home, No. 79 Kentwood street, Dorchester, but returned in his sick Monday morning. In the afternoon he was compelled to return home, and his death occurred early today.

Lieutenant Carr, better known as "the great" Carr of the Jay street and East Boston street police stations, was one of the best known officers of the Boston police force.

Lieutenant Carr was born in March 1870, at St. H. November 30, 1880. His appointment in the Boston police force was made in 1878 and he received the grade of lieutenant last May.

Captain O'Connell, secretary to Superintendent Finner, said of Lieutenant Carr to a BOSTON AMERICAN reporter:

"Lieutenant Carr was one of the best of the force. He was one of the old guard. He was quiet for his hard work. He was a thorough housekeeper of these outlying cases."

'BOSS' TYRANNY MADE LEAGUE A NECESSITY

—Ex-Mayor Hastings

Former Mayor William A. Hastings of Malden, in an address last evening in Melrose in advocacy of Walter S. Glidden as a candidate for governor's Council over Alfred E. Cox, told his hearers that the tyranny of political bosses made the Independent League a necessity.

In his speech he said: "My subject tonight is independence of politics, and one of the speakers spoke of the Independent League. Now I am not particularly acquainted with the Independent League, but I do recognize the fact that certain men in the Legislatures and Democratic parties are forced out of their parties by the Independent party which will give them recognition."

He said that the people of Melrose that so long as states are made up five years in advance just as long as there need of an independent party and in long is there need of independence is voting.

HASTINGS' CASE IS POSTPONED

John W. Hastings, the aged vault clerk, accused of stealing $1,000 from the Boston sub-treasury office, appeared before United States Commissioner Hines at the Federal Building today and through counsel of joint counsel had his case continued until September 9 at which time he will be formally arraigned for trial.

Pale and haggard, showing only two pliant the terrible strain under which he is laboring, the former vault clerk, accompanied by his counsel, Nathaniel Jones of Carey, Jones & Darling, met several his former acquaintances in the Federal building, but made no effort to greet anybody. To the judge no effort to greet anybody.

His confinement was agreed on, hurriedly left the court room. That the shock of his arrest in proving a great mental strain was apparent to his friends who saw him.

Mr. Hastings is a guest at the Nahant Summer house of his brother, Oliver S. Hastings, who is his long-time in the grip of poverty.

First Assistant District Attorney Garland represented the government. Secret Service Inspector Burke was at the brief.

BROWNE'S COW PROBLEM HARD BRAIN TESTER

A cow is tied to a corner of a shed twenty-five feet square. The rope is 100 feet long. Over how much ground area is it possible for her to graze?

Professor Browne's cow is still grazing around the lot, and the answers to the problem are pouring in with every mail. Below are some of those received yesterday.

How to Figure It.

Problem Editor: I took Browne's cow grass on Answer: 80,425 square feet.
It is composed of 3 right angles of 100 feet, 1 right angle of 100 feet, less the square of the bull rope. Thus a rectangle 125 feet by 25 feet.

JOHN L. JARVIS, JR.
Emory street, Fall River.

Another from Fall River.

Problem Editor: Browne's cow can graze on an area equal to that of the entire side which is 100 feet long. Because she has rope enough, and after rounding three sides of the lot to cover an area equal to that of the lot, W. R. BUELL, JR., 80 Boston street, Fall River.

One from Bath, Maine.

Problem Editor: My solution of the Browne's cow problem is as follows:
1. Area of circle of 75 feet radius = 4,417.86 sq. ft.
2. Area of circle of 25 feet radius = 490.87 sq. ft.

Telegraphers' Benefit to Be Hummer

'Green Bird' to Be Made Funnier Than Ever Monday Evening in Aid of the Striking Keymen of Boston.

"I'm going to give 'em the time of their lives," declared Fred Lennox, comedian in "The Green Bird" at the Majestic Theatre, when he was asked yesterday what was to be done at the benefit performance next Monday evening for the striking telegraphers.

"There's nobody who works harder than a key-tapper," said he, "and I know, for I used to sit at the key myself. I know the strain they undergo, and I am glad of the opportunity to put my shoulder to the wheel and help the boys out. All I'm going to say about the benefit next Monday, in which the entire company participates, is that it will make 'em all sit up and take notice. 'The Green Bird' gives us all a great chance to make fun for the people out front, and we'll go the limit Monday. So get busy."

This was in response to questions of J. J. Carney, who is chairman of the telegraphers' committee on the benefit performance. A brand new "horrible" scene has been prepared by Fred Lennox, and it is possible that the "Green Bird" will dominate everything will be taught to say something besides "Zow, as he does now."

The Majestic's house has been reserved for the officers of the organization and for the theatre will be decorated with the signals of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union. Tickets for Monday evening's performance may be obtained at the office of the Telegraphers' Union, No. 604 Washington street, or at the theatre box office on usual.

A new scene was written yesterday for the evening "The Clans that Came in the Tide," and it is very applicable to the telegraphers' strike. "The Widows," who assist in this scene, are becoming greatly interested in the strike since they know the words of the new scene.

CALLAHAN FIRM ASK INSPECTION

With everything done above board, with a high record of public confidence, the result of goods of quality and fair dealing, the firm of John P. Callahan & Co., No. 100 South Federal street, today propose to prove to visitors, customers or guests, why their figures have given such great satisfaction. To that end the Callahan firm invites an inspection of its salesrooms, storeroom, bottling, packing and shipping houses.

Years of satisfaction among customers, in which over one million packages of fine liquors have been sold by mail order all over the New England States, is the record of which this company is proud. During the business life of this firm, almost half a century, the claim is made and proved that it has never sold an inferior liquor or asked an unfair price. Good goods and honest dealing has ever been its motto.

Today the liquor has two whistles—the Callahan & Co. and the Callahan AAAAA—which are its specialties. The first is low priced but pure whiskey. The second is a rare old article of private stock. All other liquors handled by this firm are made to conform to the same standard of honesty and fair price.

BOY FIRES FATAL SHOT.

NEWTON CITY, Pa., Aug. 22.—An eight-year-old boy, William J. Smith, was killed today by a shot fired from a .22 caliber Remington-Union Model No. 1000. The boy was playing with a gun in the yard of his home when he pulled the trigger. The boy was killed.

The Favorite Home Beverage

The immense popularity of Frank Jones Ale as a table beverage is simply due to the high quality, strict purity and delicious flavor which have never been surpassed by any ale at any price.

FRANK JONES Homestead Ale

is preferred by those who like a light ale of full body and fine flavor. It is made from the finest selected, cleaned Western barley, malted by us in the only malt houses in New England, brewed in the cleanest and best equipped breweries in America.

Frank Jones Homestead Ale, special bottling (or on draught) is sold only in places displaying the RED, WHITE AND BLUE QUALITY MARK. Insist on getting the genuine—accept no substitute.

DIDN'T PREDICT ANY EXPLOSION

—MRS. KING.

Mrs. A. L. King of No. 41 Wyomington street, Melrose, declares that her statements concerning the "blow" in the Harvard Knitting Mill at Watford were confined to an opinion that the boiler needed to be looked after. It was in this mill that agitation was caused among employees, especially the women, an amount of fear that the boiler might explode on Wednesday, August 21.

"I never said 'the boiler is that hot' or 'it would explode.' I only said it was in bad condition and needed to be looked after. I never predicted any time regarding the boiler explosion. I am not a card reader or fortune teller. I am a plain woman and clairvoyant."

SEAMEN SEEK LAW'S REPEAL

William H. Fraser, secretary of the Atlantic Coast Seamen's Union, backed by the Central Labor Union and his own organization, today asked the House Committee on Legislation to recommend the repeal of the laws providing heavy fines as the penalty for asking a sailor to leave his vessel or for a sailor doing so. The laws objected to are complained of by reasons of depriving them of the same rights when on a strike as are workmen ashore.

"I ask," he said, "that the sailor be given the same right to leave a vessel that a workman has to come off a ship. The Massachusetts law is unconstitutional because it conflicts with United States laws."

THAW LIKE NEW MEAT STRIKERS MAN IN PRISON ATTACK WAGON

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—Word from within the grim walls of the Tombs, where Harry Thaw is waiting after the weary summer days, awaiting his second trial for the murder of Stanford White, comes some interesting facts on the young millionaire's physical condition.

Although his face is white with prison pallor and he yearns for outdoor air and the society of his wife and friends, it is said that his physical condition is better than at any time in prison.

By Boston American Licensed Wire. NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—The first view of the strike of the meat wagon drivers occurred today, when a crowd of men attended a heavy truck of the Schwabacher & Schneider Company at Thirty-fifth street and First avenue, east of the strike-breaking driver and out the track.

All this happened so quickly that the strike wagon drivers were away before the police arrived. The wagon was forced back to the station and a further attempt was made to take it out.

BRING PICKETON'S BODY.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—William A. Picketon announced today that the body of his son, the late Robert A. Picketon, will come to New York, Germany, on the steamer Empress, tomorrow, and is due to arrive in New York about September 2.

Still Red Tagging

And in this fact centres the chief beauty of our Red Tag Sale. The buying interest is sure to increase each day of each week, because as fast as lots get smaller the price is still further reduced to hurry the goods along. If certain low priced lots sell out altogether other higher priced goods are cut in price to fill up the gaps.

In this way fresh interest is added daily. There's always something new on sale in a new low price; and the chances are that it will be just the article you would be apt to buy under ordinary conditions at regular price. Look for the Red Tags—then look at the original white price tag and you can see for yourself just how much you save.

Is Man Right When He Says Women Can Not Keep a Secret?

By Beatrice Fairfax

There is nothing that has occurred there during your presence is sacred as far as betrayal on your part is concerned. Gossip is a dangerous machine and almost invariably lands the one who indulges in it in trouble sooner or later. To some women it is the breath of life, and they can no more resist it than they can live without breathing.

Fortunately the gossip soon makes a reputation for herself and people take most of her talk for what it is worth.

However, one gossip in a neighborhood can manage to stir up a good deal of trouble and get herself generally disliked.

It is a good idea to limit yourself to saying only kind things about your neighbors. As long as you stick to that you cannot go very far astray. If you are engaged with a number of other girls make it a habit never to talk about them to another woman.

Gossip Dangerous

YOU must remember that you have been a guest, have broken bread in your friend's house and that thereof the venture. For it is a venture, this delicate task of raising a debutante.

No wonder society matrons are smiling patronizingly at the statement of the good London matron that her eldest daughter, who recently presented at court, represented a grand total outlay of $2,000.

It is a good idea to limit yourself to saying only kind things about your neighbors. As long as you stick to that you cannot go very far astray.

Women of Title Who Keep Shop

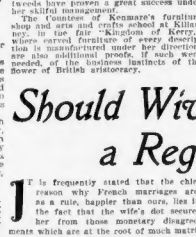

It is not on many years ago that the English belief was widespread that the United States was a nation of shopkeepers. Even now the same opinion exists, but it is slowly fading away.

The list of nobles who have entered the field is small compared to the women. Most of them work hard for their money and are not the idle rich. They are the women who have made the name of the United States in the world.

Titled Milliner

LADY RUTH, WING daughter of the Earl of Shaftesbury, is another well-known society milliner who started a flourishing hat shop in the West End of London.

Should Wives Get a Regular Salary?

It is frequently stated that the chief reason why French marriages are so often broken up is due to the fact that the wife's art secures her from those monetary disagreements which are at the root of much marital trouble.

A great deal is written and spoken of the extravagance of women. But somehow few persons seem willing to let the grievance of those thousands of wives whose pitance of provision is doled out irregularly and capriciously weigh in the scales against the advantages of a regular salary.

It is not a question of making his daughter any allowance, even if he can afford to do so. It is a question of making her a regular salary, perhaps, but not a day's wages.

HOW TO TAKE HOUR REST CURE

When you rest for that famous hour a day that authorities on nerves say is necessary, shut your eyes and try to rest all the muscles of the face. Do it so much that you can actually feel the small lines of your face smoothing themselves out.

Don't read, don't write, if possible, but stay awake, and rather than trying to sleep, try to stay awake.
